LANARK-FRONTENAC-KINGSTON

ABOUT JOHN

John is a seasoned manager with over 30 years' experience and is the CEO of ConnectWell Community Health in Lanark. For the past two decades John has played a leadership role in the integration of the North Lanark CHC, Lanark Community Programs and the Whitewater Bromley CHC to form ConnectWell Community Health.

“Having been born and raised in Lanark County, I am honoured to have been nominated as your PC candidate for Lanark-Frontenac-Kingston,” said John Jordan. “I look forward to continuing to work with constituents and all community partners to advance your priorities at Queen’s Park.”

In his spare time, John operates a small family farm in Montague Township. John holds a degree in Economics from York University and an Executive MBA from the University of Ottawa. In 2015, John also completed the Rotman and Telfer Senior Leadership Program.
